December 2, 2018
First Sunday of Advent

Dear Members of the St. Mary's Parish Family,

Happy New Year! Advent marks the beginning of a new year in the Church calendar, as we recall the First Coming of Jesus among us as the Babe of Bethlehem, and as we look forward to His Second Coming as the King of Glory. The Advent Mass readings today through December 16 focus on Jesus' return at the Last Judgment, then on December 17 shift to His birth 2,000 years ago. In a real sense, the Advent readings capture the way a faithful Christian lives – reflecting on the Jesus Who once walked among us as man, and also preparing to meet Him face to face one day.

The shift in Church seasons is evident in our worship space in several ways today. Those attending daylight Masses will be able to see that the sanctuary skylight has been tinted Advent shades of purple and rose. The effect is something like a dawn or sunset sky; appropriate as Advent encompasses both the birth (dawn) of Christ into the world, and the promised final return (sunset) of Jesus to establish His Kingdom on the earth. The colored skylight also darkens the sanctuary slightly, bringing to mind the darkness of a world without Christ. On Christmas Day the white skylight will return, allowing bright light again as we commemorate the birth of Jesus, Who is forever the "Light of the World."

For Advent the sanctuary draperies have been changed to purple, the Church's color of penance and preparation. Likewise the priest's and deacon's vestments are purple – the darker "royal" purple of Jesus the newborn King or returning triumphant King. This is different from the more "violet" purple of Lent, the redder tint of which suggests the blood spilt for us by Jesus on Calvary. For this same reason the Advent vestments are much richer in ornamentation than the simple vestments worn during Lent. To the right of the sanctuary stands the St. Mary's Advent wreath, the candles of which will count down for us the weeks until Christmas, even as time itself counts down to the return and final judgment of Jesus. We hope that an Advent wreath will grace your own family table tonight, as it is a beautiful way to bring prayer into your home and teach children about the two comings of Jesus.

As we look at the way our church building has been transformed for Advent, we are each invited to consider the transformation that God is calling us to in these four short weeks of grace. How can we move from fear to courage, doubt to trust, covetousness to generosity, sorrow to joy, and loneliness to the sure knowledge that GOD IS WITH US in the person of Jesus Christ? How can we make sure that Christmas finds us spiritually closer to God than we are right now today?

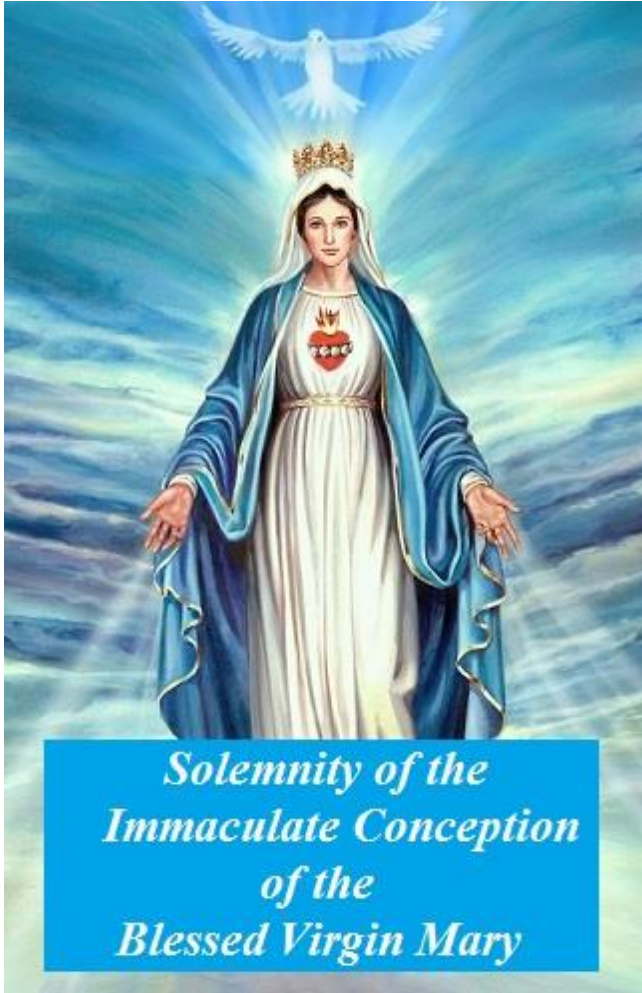

Prayer is always the foundation of our relationship with God, and Advent prayer books have been made available at the church entrances for you to take home. We hope they will enrich both your four-week journey to Christmas and your greater journey to God. I encourage you also this Advent to invite home to Mass a Catholic friend or neighbor who has fallen away. Advent represents Jesus drawing closer to the human family through His Incarnation and Birth. How appropriate at this time, then, to invite and welcome a Catholic home to Mass – the place where each week Jesus draws powerfully near to us in Word and Sacrament.

In the end, Advent invites each of us to look honestly at our relationships with God and neighbor so as to make whatever changes and fresh starts are needed to be more faithful disciples. Above all, we must avoid the trap of spending all our time and energy on external Christmas preparations, and none on our interior / spiritual life. May a good Advent find us all a little more like Christ this Christmas, and full of His peace in the New Year to come.

May the Lord of Our Advent Journey bless you and yours.

Under His Mercy,

“IMMACULATE CONCEPTION” ~
A HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION:
This Friday, December 7 Vigil Mass at
6:30 PM. Saturday, December 8 Feast Day
Masses at 9 AM & 12 Noon.

The Immaculate Conception is that sacred moment when Mary was conceived in her mother Anna’s womb and specially protected by God from any touch of original sin. In this way, Mary became the new Eve, a new beginning for the human race and a pure vessel to receive the Son of God and bear Him into the world. This is the Patronal Feast of the United States of America, a nation consecrated to Mary under her title as the Immaculate Conception.

GRADE 4 CHRISTMAS HAPPENING

GENERAL SESSION: On Tuesday, December 11 from 3 to 4:30 PM, all Sunday and weekday children in Grade 4 are to attend the General Session and enjoy the wonder of making Christmas ornaments and gifts for the needy children in the parish community. Over fifty gift bags will be assembled by the Gr. 4 children while they enjoy special homemade treats and listen to the wonderful Christmas story about the birth of our Savior in Bethlehem.

GRADE 6 JESSE TREE: Our Grade 6 students will decorate the Jesse Tree located in the parish lobby today. Jesse was King David's father and as we are told in the Book of the Prophet Isaiah that one day a shoot would "sprout from the stump of Jesse, and from his root a bud [would] blossom." This blossom would be the promised Messiah Who would save the people from their sins. As we enter the season of Advent let us rejoice and be glad and welcome Jesus into our hearts!

ADVENT MINI-RETREAT: Today, Sunday, December 2 from 2:00 to 3:00 PM in the church, there will be an Advent Retreat with Eucharistic adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Deacon John Barry will give a reflection on the true meaning of preparing our hearts for the season of Advent. Refreshments will be served following the retreat.

During this season Advent of waiting we ask for God's forgiveness and mercy through our Lord Jesus Christ.

SPECIAL NEEDS: Tuesday, December 4 from 6:30 to 7:30 PM in the Library.
