March 17, 2019
2nd Sunday of Lent

Dear Members of the St. Mary's Parish Family,

What was Jesus doing on the mountaintop before the spiritual pyrotechnics of today's Gospel occurred? Matthew is silent, but Luke's telling of this story includes the important detail that Jesus went up the mountain "to pray." Jesus' transfiguration, the appearance of Moses and Elijah, the Voice of God – all these things were unleashed by the power of prayer. Together with fasting and almsgiving, prayer is one of the three pillars of our own Lenten experience. During these forty days we pray for forgiveness, for guidance, for strength, for patience, and for help in becoming more like Jesus Himself. We pray for those dear to us, for strangers in need, and even for our enemies – an act of perfect mercy in the Lord.

Today's Feast of St. Patrick, the Patron Saint of our Archdiocese, gives us a powerful proof that praying for, loving and forgiving enemies is truly possible in Christ. Having been kidnapped from his home and family in Scotland at the age of sixteen, Patrick spent six years as a slave in Ireland before escaping to Britain. And yet, after becoming a priest and a bishop, Patrick longed to return to the very people who had so mistreated him, in order that they might know the light of Christ's truth and be delivered from the darkness of paganism and superstition. How easy it would have been for Patrick to harbor a just and righteous anger against those who had stolen away his youth! But instead he adopted them as his own spiritual children. When we consider all that Patrick found it in his heart to forgive, how very small and petty the various hurts and injuries we sometimes get upset about appear in comparison.

St. Patrick said that he came to count his captivity as a blessing since it made him turn to God in his need. He found solace in prayer, especially while alone in the quiet, green fields, shepherding the flocks for which he was ordered to care. This time in prayer helped Patrick find his true vocation as a shepherd of souls and priest of God. Always, prayer is the key to finding our way out of dark places and onto the path that God has prepared for us – the path that Jesus walked before us, the path of sacrificial love. This Lent I have found the following Morning Prayer to be a particular blessing on my own journey, and so I share it with you here. God bless you!

Lord,
In the silence of this new day,
I come to ask You for peace, wisdom, and strength.
Today, I wish to view the world
Through eyes filled with love.
To be patient, understanding, gentle and wise.
To see beyond outward appearances
Your children as You see them.
Thus to see the good in each one.
Close my ears to all slander.
Keep my tongue from all spite.
May only thoughts that bless
Remain in my soul.
May I be so benevolent and joyous
That all who approach me may feel Your presence.
Clothe me in Your light, Lord,
That throughout this day,
You are revealed through me.
Amen.

Rev. Mark J. Coiro
Pastor

TWO IMPORTANT THINGS TO “GIVE UP” FOR LENT THIS YEAR

Lent is a time when we take a hard look at our lives as Catholics and as a Catholic Community. It is an ideal time to identify and work on any ways we may have become liturgically lax or spiritually sloppy at Mass.

I will give up missing the Scriptures at Mass:

Although we should do all we can to avoid it, occasionally circumstances beyond our control may make us a bit late for Mass. However, if we enter the Church so late that we miss all of the Scriptures, the Gospel being the last of these, then we have missed that Mass. Church teaching is very clear that the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist together constitute the Mass. If it is a Sunday Mass, entering after the Gospel does not fulfill the Sunday Mass obligation – that Mass has been missed. For this same reason, anyone entering a Mass after the Gospel, should refrain from receiving Communion.

In Catholic tradition, the celebration of God’s Word is considered necessary before receiving Communion. The Scriptures open, purify and prepare the soul to meaningfully receive the Body and Blood of Jesus. Remember on the Road to Emmaus, how the Risen Lord first shared the Word of God with the two disciples as He walked with them, and then they recognized Him in the breaking of the Bread? Even when visiting the sick, we never just give them Communion – a Scripture is always read first. Sadly, we have a growing number of persons habitually entering Mass after the Gospel – or even after the Consecration – and still receiving Communion. It has become an epidemic at our daily Masses, where people do this almost every day – many of them then walking right out the door after receiving.

The Mass is not a McDonald’s Drive Thru. It is the Upper Room, where Jesus gathered with His disciples, spoke God’s Word, and then shared the gift of Himself as Eucharist. It is not a place to “pop in and grab a bite on the fly,” but rather a place to rest and encounter Jesus meaningfully in Word and Sacrament. Please respect the Word of God, and acknowledge its importance, by arriving at Mass in time to experience it. And please refrain from receiving Communion if you have not first prepared to do so by hearing the Word of God at that Mass. Let us all honor and imitate the manner of Worship that Jesus Himself laid out for us.

I will give up reading the bulletin during Mass:

Recently the priests who assist at St. Mary’s have noticed a lot of people reading the bulletin when they are trying to preach on the Gospel. All of our priests study and work hard to “open up” God’s Word through the Sunday homily. Imagine if you spent a whole week preparing to talk to someone about an important matter, choosing just the right words, trying to approach the topic in the best way. Then at week’s end you are finally with that person. You begin to talk to them, and they pick up a newspaper to read while you are speaking to them. How would you feel? You would feel that you do not have their full attention. Even if they said, “I’m listening,” while looking down at their newspaper or cellphone, you would still find their behavior to be rude and disrespectful. Reading the bulletin, or the Pilot, or whatever when the priest is trying to speak to you through the homily is extremely disrespectful - both to him and to the Word of God he is trying to proclaim. It also sets a terrible example for the young people of our parish.

The parish bulletin is meant to be taken home for reading. If you have fallen into the bad habit of reading it during Mass – especially at the homily – please use this Lent to reclaim your reverence. If you see a family member doing this during Mass, please talk to them about it at home. If you see a stranger doing this at Mass, please say a prayer for them. We would hate to become one of those parishes where the bulletin and Pilot are no longer put out until the end of Mass. St. Mary’s Parish has a tradition of reverence and courtesy that a little self-control can help us all reclaim this Lent.

ABSTINENCE -- Catholics over 14 years of age are bound to the obligation of abstinence. Abstinence is to be observed on Ash Wednesday and on all Fridays of Lent. On days of abstinence, meat may not be used at all.

FASTING -- Catholics over 18 and up to the beginning of their 60th year are bound to the obligation of fasting. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are the days of fasting. On these days, only one full meal is allowed. Two other meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids, including milk and fruit juices are allowed.

EVENING PRAYER: Come enjoy Lenten Evening Prayer, 7 PM in the Church, (15-20 minutes). This is the daily prayer of the Catholic Church consisting of psalms, hymns, and intercessions. Come find peace at day's end. March 19, 26, April 2, 9, & 16.

LENTEN SOUP SUPPERS: Bring the whole family and friends to enjoy a homemade meal, prayer and friendship every Friday during Lent from 6 to 7 PM. Come meet other families in the parish as we seek the Lord anew. Start a new tradition or continue with an old one by helping to prepare a soup, salad or delicious cheesy pasta. Don't like to cook? Bring a savory bread or just help out with setting up or breaking down. It's easy to volunteer, just visit: <https://tinyurl.com/2019-Lenten-Soup-Supper> and sign up. Have a blessed Lent!

40 HOURS DEVOTION:

In celebrating this devotion, the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed on the altar at St. Mary's for forty continuous hours. The church will be open throughout and people may stop in at any time to visit with the Lord in prayer. The Forty Hours Devotion nurtures the love of the faithful for our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. Additionally, three special dimensions surround this devotion:

- the protection from evil and temptation;
- reparation for our own sins and for the Poor Souls in Purgatory;
- and deliverance from political, material, or spiritual calamities.

PENNIES FROM HEAVEN: Please bring your pennies or spare change to the Religious Education Lobby during Lent to help the people of Sierra Leone. [There is a special wooden collection stand there – just use the round metal flap on top.] Here a child can go to Catholic school for $1.00 a year. A little goes a long way in this poor country. Please check the Respect Life bulletin board for updates!

LOVE ENDURES ~ A THREE-PART LENTEN SERIES: "It appears that the Genesis serpent got it right on every account. (Genesis 3:1-5). Adam and Eve didn't die; their eyes were opened; and they became 'like' God, knowing good and evil. The serpent was right because he kept his conversation to the natural order. What he knew, but did not say, was that there was a greater, supernatural order." Join our Seminarian, Steven Booth, for "Love Endures", a three-part series, where we will examine the "Greater Supernatural Order," the Cross which stands at its center and the God-given virtues of Faith, Hope and Love that make living the Christian Life possible. All are welcome for this time of reflection, discussion and questions about our Catholic Faith. Register by emailing Mary Beth at St.Marys1870@gmail.com. Wednesdays, March 27, April 3 and April 10 from 7:00 to 8:00 PM in Classrooms 3 & 4.

WISDOM FROM THE SAINTS: “If a priest is determined not to lose his soul, as soon as any disorder arises in the parish he must set aside human considerations as well as the fear of the contempt of some of his people. He must not allow anything to bar his way in the discharge of sacred duty, even where he is certain of being murdered on coming down from the pulpit. A pastor who wants to do his duty must keep his sword in hand at all times.” - St. John Vianney
