September 5, 2021
23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Members of the St. Mary's Parish Family,

Happy Labor Day. All work has its challenges. But every life worth living involves work. When we work, we imitate God – the great Craftsman - Who worked for six days to create this world in which we live. God Who worked to fashion each and every one of us in His own image. God Who entrusted His own Son Jesus to be raised not by a king or emperor – but by a worker. A simple carpenter named Joseph. Work is more than just an inconvenience required for life. Work is part of God's plan for us. It is an opportunity to serve God, as together we seek to build His Kingdom of Justice upon the earth.

Some of us are fortunate enough to work at jobs that fulfill us, that sharpen our talents and give us joy. Many, though, work at jobs they would not freely choose – jobs that may not be professionally fulfilling – but that allow them to support their loved ones. And those kinds of jobs in a very special way become part of the Christian Vocation. I'm sure that many of us could tell stories of how a parent or other family member sacrificed and worked not only to provide for us – but to give us real opportunities for a better future.

It's been said that any kind of work – if we do it for love – can be a “sacrament.” An offering acceptable to the Lord. A channel for His grace into our lives. St. Theresa of Lisieux spoke of her “Little Way of Love” – a way of embracing even the most unpleasant and ordinary tasks of everyday life as opportunities to make an offering of love to God. Theresa always made a point of doing the work in her convent that was needed – rather than just those jobs she enjoyed. She preferred to work as a sacristan, taking care of the altar and the chapel; but she mostly served in the convent kitchen. And she often volunteered for laundry duty – because it was her least favorite occupation.

You husbands and wives, you children and teenagers – answer this question: What is the chore you least enjoy in your family home? Maybe it's changing diapers or taking out the garbage. Perhaps it's cooking, or washing dishes, or mowing the lawn. Whatever the task may be – if you do it without complaining - if you do it for love - then that activity can become a sacrament. A “Little Way” of connecting to God. A “Way of the Cross.” The Way, of sacrificial love, that Jesus walked before us.

If there is one thing that all the saints have in common, I think it is this. That they all came to take their greatest joy in bringing joy to others. In bringing joy to God, Who delights in our charity and generosity. Who rejoices when He sees His own goodness and compassion, His own Divine Work, reflected in our lives.

This Labor Day, let us each take a moment to consider the place of work in our lives. Let us commit ourselves to the dignity of all workers, doing our part to assure safe working conditions, and a just, living wage. Let us thank God for the work that brings pleasure and purpose to our lives. But let us thank God even more for the opportunities to labor in ways that are sacrificial – at work or at home. Pouring ourselves out in the service of others, as Jesus did. So that God may fill us anew, with His love.

In His Service and Yours,

ARE YOU UNBAPTIZED?

ARE YOU BAPTIZED BUT NEVER MADE FIRST HOLY COMMUNION?

ARE YOU AN ADULT WHO WAS NEVER CONFIRMED?

WERE YOU BAPTIZED IN ANOTHER FAITH BUT ARE NOW CONSIDERING BECOMING A CATHOLIC?

St. Mary’s offers an opportunity to come together in a small group to learn more about our faith. Called R.C.I.A. (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) these sessions focus on the teachings and experience of Christ’s Church and prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist during the Easter season. There are separate sessions for children or youth. You are invited to participate in the process with your questions, your insights, and your faith story in a supportive and accepting setting. Our wonderful R.C.I.A. team and our whole parish are waiting to give you a warm welcome!

Please call (508) 429-4427 or email st.marys1870@gmail.com for more information.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION REGISTRATION FOR 2021-2022:

Registrations are now past due. CLOW BEGINS IN SEPTEMBER: CLOW is in need of many adult leaders in order to begin in September. Children remain in the church for CLOW the first Sunday of each month and then are dismissed to the lower church hall to hear the Gospel for the remaining Sundays. Please prayerfully consider this wonderful ministry to inspire and direct the hearts of the children toward God. Contact st.marysre1870@gmail.com for more information if you can assist as one of our CLOW Leaders.
