June 19, 2022
Solemnity of Corpus Christi

Dear Members of the St. Mary's Parish Family,

Congratulations to the twenty-two more children who made their First Holy Communion yesterday. We rejoice to welcome you to the Table of the Lord! Today we celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi – the Feast of the Body & Blood of Christ. Today we thank God for the great gift of the Eucharist, the means by which Jesus becomes truly present among us each and every time we celebrate the Holy Mass. Our belief in the bread made the Body and the wine made the Blood is beautifully reflected in our practices concerning Holy Communion:

BEFORE COMMUNION: By fasting for one hour before Mass (consuming only water or medicine) we demonstrate our belief in Jesus' true presence in the Eucharist by setting aside earthly food in preparation to receive the very bread come down from heaven.

AT COMMUNION: By saying "The Body of Christ" when we approach for Communion, the priest or minister is asking us to profess our faith in the true presence of Christ in the Eucharist. We do so in word by answering, "Amen" – a Latin word meaning "verily", or "it is so."

AFTER RECEIVING COMMUNION: Actions speak louder than words, so after saying "Amen" we then demonstrate our belief that it is really Jesus we have received by returning to our pew to spend time with Him in silent or sung prayer – to "commune" with the Lord. This precious time spent praying after receiving Communion is the closest we shall ever come to Jesus in this life before we meet Him face to face in the life to come. St. Francis de Sales advised the following: "When you have received Him, stir up your heart to do Him homage; speak to Him about your spiritual life, gazing upon Him in your soul where He is present for your happiness; and welcome Him as warmly as possible."

Some Catholic parishes have experienced the problem of people walking right out the door after receiving Holy Communion. Today's Feast provides a good opportunity to consider why such an act is inconsistent with our belief in the Holy Eucharist. With the obvious exceptions of illness or other emergency, walking out the door after receiving Communion should be avoided for the following reasons. First, it steals from the communicant the chance to pray with the One they have just received; depriving them also of the grace that prayer would bring. At the very moment the communicant's thoughts should be turned heavenward, those thoughts instead turn toward worldly matters, i.e. driving, where they are going next, talking to other people instead of to God, etc.

Walking out the door after receiving Communion also fractures the worshipping community at the very part of the Mass that it is meant to be most perfectly united by the Eucharist and prayer. Such an act denies the "Amen" just spoken; for if one truly believes they have just received Jesus, would they not then want to spend time with Him in prayer? The Eucharist is Someone – not something. It is a Person to be spoken to in immediate prayer, not a spiritual pill that once consumed will do its work regardless of whether or not we pay it any further attention. The Mass itself is named after the "Missa" – the prayer of sending forth at the very end of Mass ("The Mass is ended, go in peace.") In a very real sense, anyone who departs the church building before the "Missa" can be said to have missed the Mass. Certainly they have missed the meaning of the Mass, and stolen from themselves the most valuable time of prayer afforded us therein.

AFTER MASS: After the Mass is over, we demonstrate our belief in the True Presence of Christ in the Eucharist most importantly of all by the way we live our lives. Everyone we meet between one Sunday and the next should be able to experience the Eucharist – Christ now within us – by our love, by our compassion and by our willingness to forgive others even as we have been forgiven in Christ Jesus.

In His Service and Yours,

Rev. Mark J. Coiro
Pastor

HOLY COMMUNION PRAYER: We thank you, our Father, for that life which You have made known to us by Jesus Your Son, by Whom You made all things, and take care of the whole world. You sent Him to become man for our salvation. You allowed Him to suffer and to die. You raised Him up, glorified Him, and have set Him at Your right hand, and in Him you have promised us the resurrection of the dead.

O Lord Almighty, eternal God, gather together Your Church from the ends of the earth into Your kingdom, as grain was once scattered, and now has become one loaf. Our Father, we also thank You for the Precious Blood of Jesus Christ, which was shed for us, and for His Precious Body, as He Himself appointed us, "to proclaim His death." For through Him glory is to be given to You forever. Amen.

CONCLUDING LIVESTREAM MASS IS TODAY:

Today, June 19, is the Feast of Corpus Christi – the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ. This will be the final day of livestreaming our 11:30 AM Sunday Mass, a practice that began during the pandemic shutdown in 2020 when parishioners could no longer attend Mass and receive Communion in person. The Sunday Mass obligation for Catholics returned on June 20, 2021. However, St. Mary's kept the livestream going a full extra year for our sick, homebound, or quarantined parishioners. It goes without saying that as always, those who are sick or homebound are excused from the Sunday Mass obligation. For them the Archdiocese provides many opportunities for virtual Mass participation, <http://www.catholicv.org/masses>. But for the rest of us, it is time to take our place again in person at the Table of the Lord. Welcome home!

K of C COUNCIL #14224, 14th ANNUAL CHARITY RAFFLE: The Council is selling chances for our annual Charity Raffle. Your vital support has enabled the Council to donate over $250,000 so far to charities including the Holliston Pantry Shelf, Veteran's organizations, Habitat for Humanity, Holliston Senior Center, and others. Please continue to support our raffle in our efforts to aid those needing food or aid. Tickets will again be $5 each or a book of five tickets for $20. Prizes range from $100 to $1,000. Raffle tickets can be purchased by contacting Tom Anguish: email: stanguish@hotmail.com or by contacting any Knight of Columbus member.

WORLDWIDE MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER: Worldwide Marriage Encounter is sponsoring a variety of in-person and virtual marriage experiences, some on weekends and weekdays. Couples will explore their relationship with each other, God, and the Church. Registration is limited and a $100 application fee is required. For more information or to apply, call Joe & Ginny Vattelle at 800-710-9963 or visit them at <https://wwmema.org/>. Don't look at the past, it's gone. Look forward with an open heart and mind to the future with your spouse - share an experience with each other. Sign up today to attend one of the upcoming Worldwide Marriage Encounter Experiences.

UKRAINE DONATIONS: St. Mary's donations to help victims of the war in Ukraine now total $7,033. God bless you and let us keep praying for peace.

A Prayer for Ukraine

God of peace and justice,
we pray for the people of Ukraine today.
We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.
We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow,
that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them.
We pray for those with power over war or peace,
for wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions.
Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at risk and in fear, that you would hold and protect them.
We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace.
Amen.

POPE FRANCIS ON FATHERHOOD:

Every family needs a father. Today we shall reflect on the value of his role, and I would like to begin with a few expressions that we find in the Book of Proverbs, words that a father addresses to his own son, and it reads like this: “My son, if your heart is wise, my heart too will be glad. My soul will rejoice when your lips speak what is right” (Pr 23:15-16).

Nothing could better express the pride and emotion a father feels when he understands that he has handed down to his child what really matters in life, that is, a wise heart.

This father does not say: “I am proud of you because you are the same as me, because you repeat the things I say and do”. No, he does not say anything so simple to him. He says something much more important, which we can understand in this way: “I will be happy every time I see you act with wisdom, and I will be moved every time that I hear you speak with rectitude. This is what I wanted to leave to you, that this one thing become yours: the attitude to feel and act, to speak and judge with wisdom and rectitude. And that you might be like this, I taught you the things you didn’t know, I corrected the errors you didn’t see. I made you feel a profound and at the same time discrete affection, which maybe you did not fully recognize when you were young and unsure. I gave you a testimony of rigour and steadfastness that perhaps you didn’t understand, when you would have liked only complicity and protection. I had first to test myself in the wisdom of my heart, be vigilant of my excesses of sentiment and resentment, in order to carry the weight of the inevitable misunderstandings, to find the right words to make myself understood.”

Now, continues the father, “I see that you strive to be this way with your own children, and with everyone, and it moves me. I am happy to be your father”. This is what a wise father, a mature father, says. A father knows all too well what it costs to hand down this heritage: how close, how gentle and how firm to be. But what consolation and what recompense he receives when the children honour this legacy! It is a joy that rewards all the toil, that overcomes every misunderstanding and heals every wound.

The first need, then, is precisely this: that a father be present in the family. That he be close to his wife, to share everything, joy and sorrow, hope and hardship. And that he be close to his children as they grow: when they play and when they strive, when they are carefree and when they are distressed, when they are talkative and when they are silent, when they are daring and when they are afraid, when they take a wrong step and when they find their path again; a father who is always present. To say “present” is not to say “controlling”! Fathers who are too controlling cancel out their children, they don’t let them develop.

The Gospel speaks to us about the exemplarity of the Father who is in Heaven — who alone, Jesus says, can be truly called the “good Father” (cf. Mk 10:18). Everyone knows that extraordinary parable of the “prodigal son”, or better yet of the “merciful father”, which we find in the Gospel of Luke in chapter 15 (cf. 15:11-32). What dignity and what tenderness there is in the expectation of that father, who stands at the door of the house waiting for his son to return! Fathers must be patient. Often there is nothing else to do but wait; pray and wait with patience, gentleness, magnanimity and mercy.

A good father knows how to wait and knows how to forgive from the depths of his heart. Certainly, he also knows how to correct with firmness: he is not a weak father, submissive and sentimental. The father who knows how to correct without humiliating is the one who knows how to protect without sparing himself...

If, then, there is someone who can fully explain the prayer of the “Our Father”, taught by Jesus, it is the one who lives out paternity in the first person. Without the grace that comes from the Father who is in Heaven, fathers lose courage, and abandon camp. But children need to find a father waiting for them when they come home after failing. They will do everything not to admit it, not to show it, but they need it; and not to find it opens wounds in them that are difficult to heal.

The Church, our mother, is committed to supporting with all her strength the good and generous presence of fathers in families, for they are the irreplaceable guardians and mediators of faith in goodness, of faith in justice and in God’s protection, like St Joseph.

– Pope Francis General Audience
